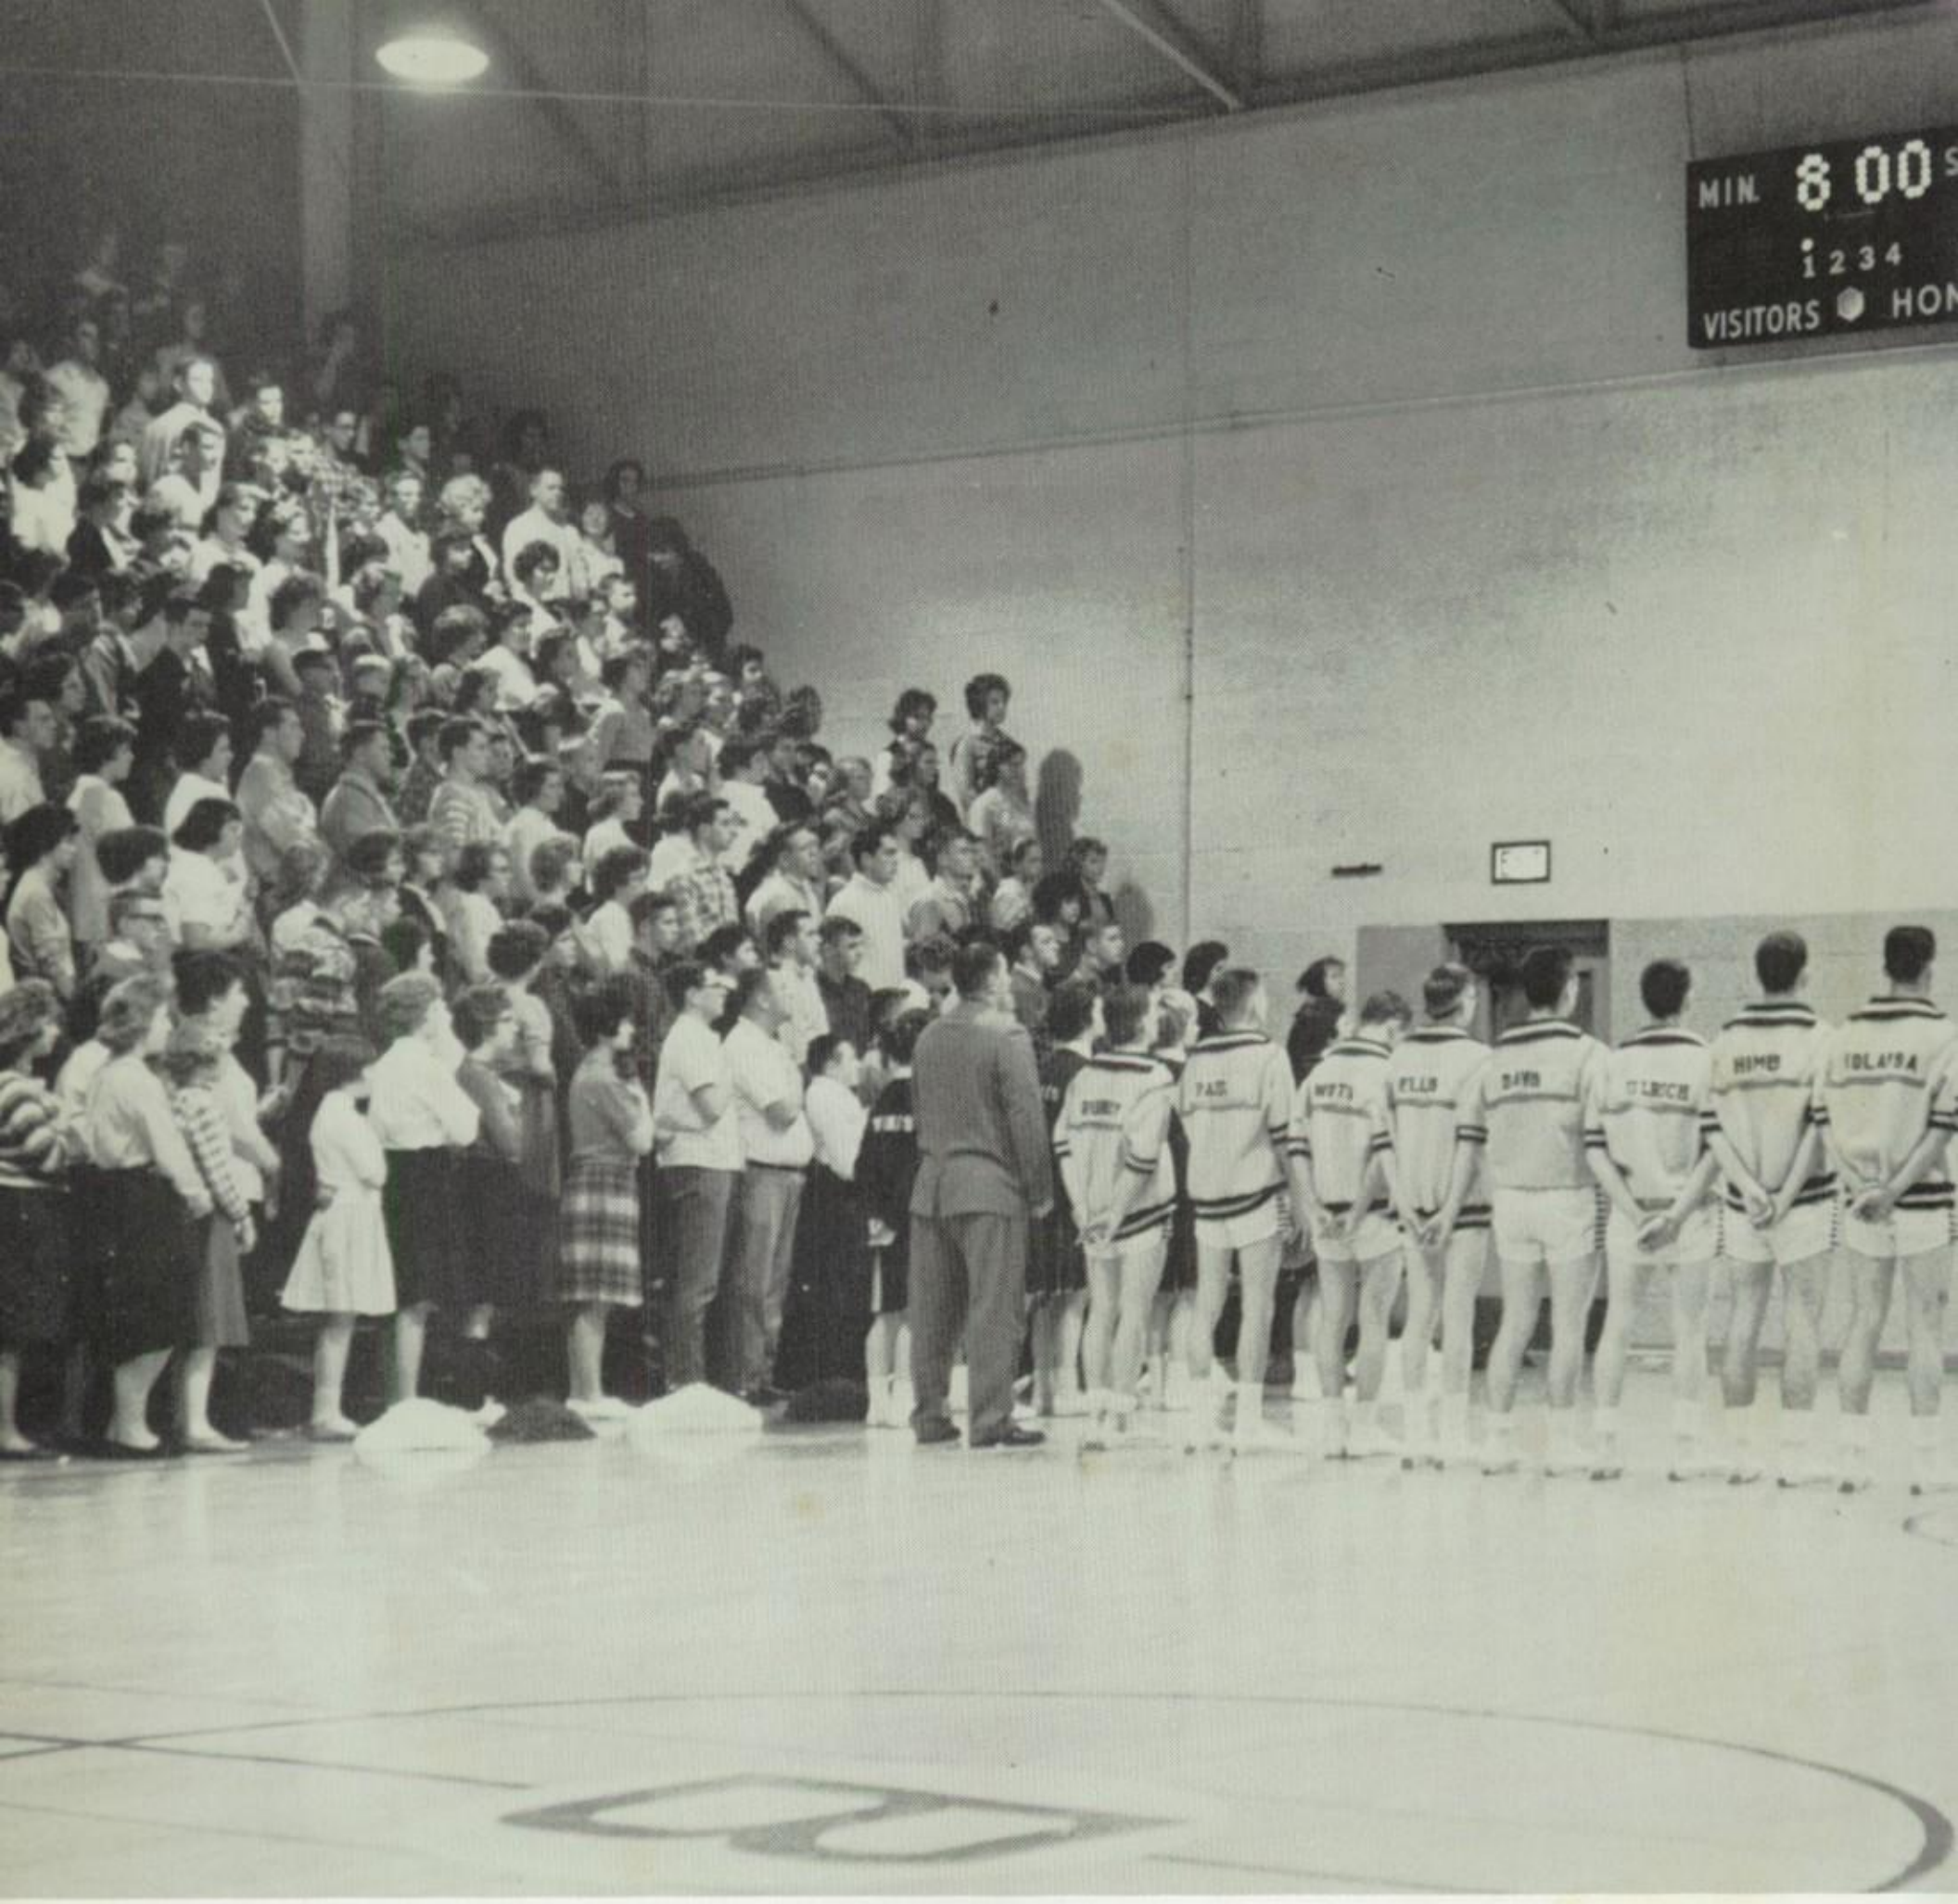
Volume 31



Foreword

This book constitutes a pictorial record of Bronson High School for the 1961-1962 school year. We have tried to capture the highlights of the year and present them in a lasting form.

In the following pages will be caught the final glimpses of the departing seniors, as well as the various activities of underclassmen.

Thank-you's are extended to all those co-operating to make this book what it is. An especially large one goes to our advisor, without whose guidance it would not have been possible.

and so do the students

Remember the Girl Scout camp out at the Conservation Club . . . tornado warnings and all? Here are Jean Houghton, Connie Ward (back to us), Kathie Langwell, Carolyn Green, Jackie French, Sandy Roeser, Joann Sponsler, and Mary Jo Littlefield at a pre-bettime gab fest.

Recognize these cute little sixth graders? Of course, it's Diane, Dirinda, and Connie.

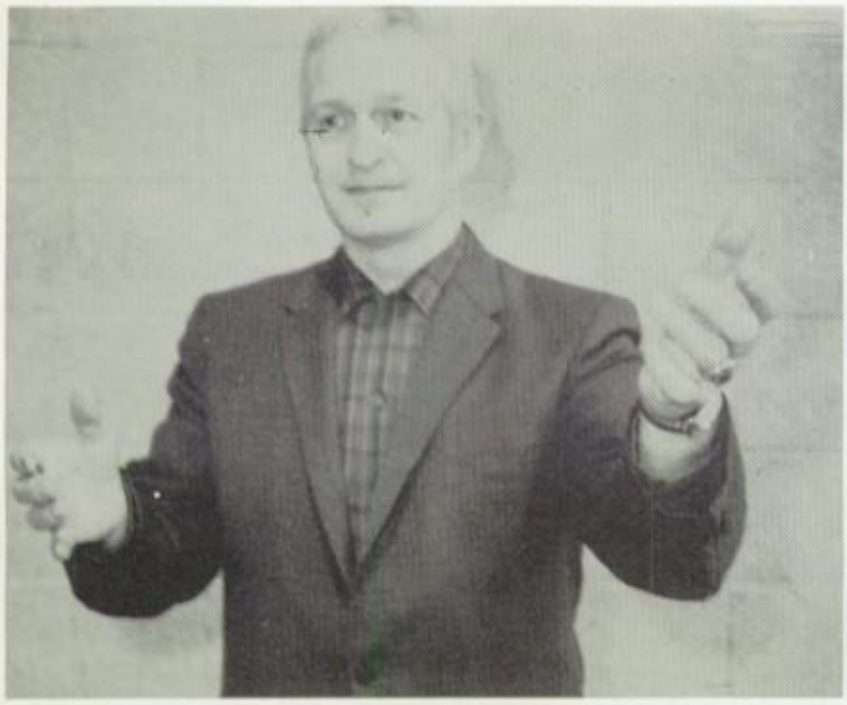
Remember These?

Another shot on the eighth grade trip - here, Bob Paul, Sharon Roudebush, Jim Maddy, and Judy Davidson pose on turnpike.

Looks like Martin Rae, Jim, and Larry are about ready to burst out with a chorus of "Lollipop" . . . quite a popular song in 1958.

Choir Has Busy Year



Director, MR. BOND

Pianist, CARYL BOTZNER

Under the leadership of Mr. Harlan Bond, Choir held numerous programs throughout the year: Thanksgiving program for the school, Christmas assembly and concert in the evening for the public, Easter program, and annual Spring Concert. Choir was accompanied on the piano by Caryl Botzner.

Career In Senior Band

Bronson's marching band leads off the 1961-1962 Homecoming parade.

Drum Majorette, ROSE BASSAGE

Band plays at Homecoming Bon Fire.

Rose Bassage was chosen to lead the marching band of Bronson this past year. She was ably assisted by Sharry Wilbur and Helen Cary. Rose has completed two years with the band, this being ner first year as Drum Majorette. Helen has completed two years, while this is Sharry's first year as Majorette.

Working hard on their routines, the girls added a final touch of enthusiasm to the band.

Students Procure Knowledge for Future

Office helpers gain experience by doing work on the daily bulletin, taking telephone messages, and helping keep office records. By working in their free time, they gained much valuable knowledge.

Student teachers spend a hour a day at the elementary school helping with daily classwork. They gain experience to what may be their future occupation.

GAA — Second Largest School Organization

Monday nights found the Bronson gym filled with many girls who belonged to Girls Athletic Association. They engaged in activities such as volleyball, basketball, and badminton. Combining pleasure with work, G.A.A. sponsored record hops, suppers for the basketball and football boys, a sport night, and profit making projects; ending the year with a campout.

Interest In Girls' Bowling Increases

Twelve teams, four on a team, participated in girls' bowling on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Teams were: Spinnerettes, Point-Getters, Juniorettes, Four F's, Black Skirt Four, Gutter Girls, Score Four, Strike-Ettes, Alleyetes, Alley Cats, and Junior Queens.

Mrs. Whitcomb, advisor

Being present at the games and "yelling" for the Vikes was the responsibility of the Pep Club members. Pep Club could have easily been spotted in their white shirts and sitting in the cheering section giving the boys all the backing they could. Pep Club had a long list of money making projects including the following: record hops, selling booster pins and megaphones, and building floats. The money gained from these projects helped send our cheerleaders to summer camp.

Pep Club Boosts Team Spirit

"Practice makes perfect".....well, almost!

Co-captains Harry Laws and Tom Ellis confer with Reserve Coach Liggett.

Vikes Return to Power in Little "C"

Bronson's Viking Varsity returned to power in the Little "C" after two years of exile. Vikings ended the season with a 13 won, 3 lost record; and, of course, the conference crown. Getting off to a running start, the Vikes defeated arch-rival Sturgis 63-52 for the first time in three years. The team then went on to defeat all opposition with the exception of Union City, Reading, and the return match with the Trojans.

Miss Chisholm, director, receiving gift from Class president, John Keeslar.

Juniors Present "Rocket

Mr. Agnew (Carl Utterback) and Spaceman (Dave Rubley) try to repair the hole made in the roof by the rocket.

To Blue Rimrock, a small town 'way out West, comes Oswald Agnew (Carl Utterback), a mild-mannered young graduate of Manasett Teachers College. It's his first assignment, and he's understandably astounded to find that he is to be the first male teacher at Rimrock High School in ten years!

The first major problem he meets is the precocious, ferocious, principal, Mrs. Matchett (Helen Carpenter). Not only is she an incurable early riser and sentence diagrammer; she's the football coach! She, along with Spaceman (Dave Rubley), Lulu (Rose Bassage), Harry Cooper (Kyn Auten), Janis Brown (Bernadette Bodine), Judy Mills (Carol Fair), Arlin Abbott (Dave McClelland), Jack (John Smith), Barbara (Laura Wiler), and Miss Chisle (Jeanette Woodward) combine to make an interesting and very entertaining performance.

Miss Kiffleburger (Janet Woodward) walks in on Mr. Agnew (Carl Utterback) and Lulu (Rose Bassage) at an inopportune moment.

Spaceman (Dave Rubley) checks instruments before blast-off.

In His Pocket"

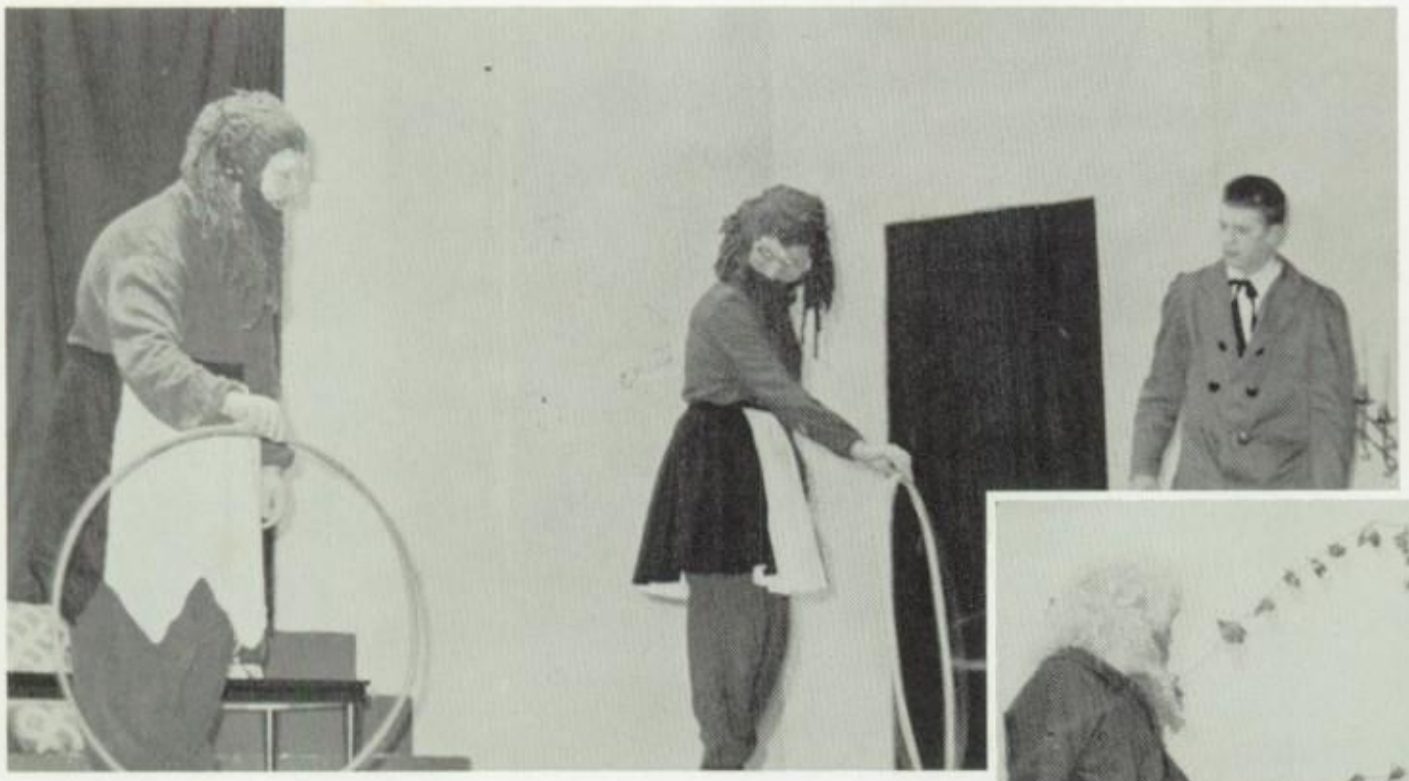
a 3 act farce-comedy

Mrs. Matchett (Helen Carpenter) explains her three educational principles - early rising, intellectual stimulation, and sufficient physical exercise.

Mr. Agnew (Carl Utterback) and wary class wait for blast-off.

"Rah! Rah! Blue Rimrock" - sings entire cast - "Fight! Fight! Fight!"

Speech Class Presents Beauty and the Beast



Reni (John Keeslar) and Toni (Patsy Longworth) entertain the merchant (Randy Crabtree).

The Beast (Jim Arundel) looks on as Beauty (Sonya Herman) begs her father, the merchant, to let her stay.

Reni works sleep charm on Prince Armand, and Toni watches in ecstasy

Sno-Queen Crowned at Christmas Dance

Held annually, the Sno-Ball, a semi-formal Christmas dance, has become a tradition at Bronson High School. Sponsored by the junior class, it is another major fund-raising project for the year.

Some difficulty arose this year; due to stormy weather; it was post-poned for almost a week, called off completely, then finally held as a dress-up record hop, Thursday, December 21.

This is the second year that a Sno-Queen has been crowned. The winner, Susie Malovey, was elected by popular vote from a field of five junior girls. This year, however, the contestants were escorted by the junior man of their choice instead of by contestants running for King of the Sno-Ball.

Susie looks calm and collected . . . at home before the dance.

Contestants and escorts pose with Queen.

"I can't believe it." say Susie.

BHS Girls Compete for Titles

Connie Ward was chosen by the Woman's Club in Bronson for her fine sewing and modeling of this red suit to participate in regional judging. Connie placed first and took part in state competition.

Kathi tells junior high class of her native country, Switzerland, and sings a folk song in Swiss German.

High school students chose Kathi to reign as our Homecoming queen. She is pictured here riding in the parade.

At home, Kathi and her "sister," Marcia, have formed a close relationship.

Kathi Asset to B.H.S.

Kathi Flachsmann, foreign exchange student from Switzerland, spent a year in Bronson taking the high school senior course.

Her interesting talks and pleasant smile have enhanced many people throughout the community. Her pleasing personality has made many new and close friends for her during her stay.

After she returns to Switzerland, she will complete her senior year again there.

Kathi was sponsored by the Student Council.

Kathi has found a home away from home at Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Butters! Mr. and Mrs. Butters, Bonnie, and Marcia have helped to teach Kathi the new and strange American customs.

Home economics students prepare for the future.

SETTLERS AT WORK

Early American had to live together in harmony, or they would not survive. This so-called "government by order to live" the beginning of our government today.

Chapter 3

THE BEGINNINGS OF GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED STATES

The roots of American government reach deep into the past. The system of government we use today sprang into being as the result of some political magician's wand. Nor was it pulled out of thin air by the

The Colonial Period

Our English Heritage. The French, Spanish, Dutch, Norwegians, and other Europeans settled in parts of what was to become the United States. But it was the English who came in the largest numbers. And it was the English who came to stay. The thirteen colonies that clustered for 1300 miles along the Atlantic were of which are to be found today county, borough, jury, sheriff, coroner, and justice of the peace, for example. And all of these were well-known in England long before the first English men ever landed in America.

(2) The Three Concepts of Limited Government and Civil Liberties. They brought with them, too, the basic ideas of limited government and civil liberties. That is, that government is not all-powerful, that government is limited to what it may do, and, especially, that it is limited in the sense that each man has certain rights that government cannot injure or take away. These great principles of freedom were proclaimed in such historic English documents as the Magna Carta in 1215, the Petition of Right in 1628, and the Bill of Rights and the Act of Toleration of 1689.

(3) The Concept of Representative Government. A third vitally important concept brought to America in English ships was that of representative government. For centuries there had been developing in England the

Junior Year Busiest Ever

Striving for 1963 and their trip, the Juniors sponsored fund raising projects, with the aid of sponsors, Mrs. Haenni and Mr. Gilmore, and Concession manager, Mr. Wilson. Vikings End Season With 6-2 Record

MISS CHAMPIONSHIP BY 1 RUN IN FINAL CONTEST WITH HOMER -

Under the coaching of William Liggett, who started his coaching career here this year, our Baseball Vikes rolled to a second place in the Conference with a 6 won 2 lost record. The team put together a combination of excellent pitching and fielding to crush all opponents with the exception of Union City and Homer.

Mayer pitches . . .

Nick Himes is giving Jerry Mock the baton in a hand-off in the 880 relay. Jerry broke the school broad jump record of 19' 5" by jumping 20' 2 1/2".

Bob Paul reached a height of 10' 3" in pole vaulting during the season.

Putting the shot was one of Jim Sullivan's special events.

of 256 Points For Season

The broad jump that Ken Kolassa is participating in here is only one of the several events that Ken entered during the season.

Scores of the meet in "Little C" competition were as follows:

Jonesville	56 1/2
Athens	48
Union City	24
Litchfield	21 1/2
Homer	17
Bronson	14 1/2
Quincy	11
Reading	4 1/2

Ken Kolassa and Gary Kirtley running the 880 relay. Take it, Ken, and let's go!!

Gary Kirtley just finishing his run in the 100 yard dash.

Chorus Presents Follies "Up Front"

Kathi, singing a few of her native songs, performs for the last time at Bronson High.

Wanda Everett, Sandy Hoskins, and Donna Heath all dressed up (?) and singing and dancing.

Del Laura Alger and Sharon Kolassa singing "I'm an Old Cowhand" while the crooks lie "dead" at their feet.

Norbert Rubley being interviewed by Harry Laws for the Bond's Broadcasting System.

Penny Jo George sings "Honey Bun" to Jim Arundel. Doesn't he look the part?

"Tulip Fashions" Shown In Style Review

Senior high girls display "dressy" dresses that they made during school class hours. The girls modeled them later in the evening for their friends and families that came to see the review.

An imaginary formal tea was served so that the girls could show that their attire would be proper for a similar occasion.

Sport clothes, as well as the "dressy" and slumber clothes, were modeled. Don't they look comfortable and relaxing? Anyone for a game of badminton?

"The Bay Is Crossed —

Junior class members form an aisle while holding lighted candles for the graduates to pass through as they walk to the platform for the Commencement exercises.

Seniors stand together as a group for the last time. Behind them is their motto: The bay is crossed; the ocean lies beyond. Each one is asking himself, "What is the ocean that I will have to cross?"

President of the Senior class is giving his final address to the Seniors and the congregation. John Keeslar is thanking "faculty, administration, friends, and especially our parents for their never ending guidance and help."

Following John's address, Mr. Weimer K. Hicks, President of Kalamazoo, brought the address: "Don't be a Rip Van Winkle." The message was very worthwhile and was well received by Seniors, parents, and friends.

The Ocean Lies Beyond"

Jerry Mock, Valedictorian and carrying an average of 3.83, is giving his Valedictory address, "America's Educational Philosophy." Jerry was very active in sports and band while in high school. As he said in his address, our extracurricular activities are very important in our educational system. He plans to attend college to become an engineer.

Salutatorian Mary Jo Littlefield speaks on "Our Goal - A Continuous Education." She said that even though we may obtain a college degree or we THINK we've reached our goal, we really haven't, for our goal must be to always want to learn more. She wants to attend school and plans to become an interior decorator. Her average was 3.41.

Joann Sponsler is shown here receiving an award naming her the most outstanding student in Home Economics.

The last Senior has received his diploma, is now leaving the stage, and walking from the auditorium for the last time as a student at Bronson.

Prom Couples Spend An "Evening In Paris"

Don Owen, Debbie Barkowski, Dave Rubley, and DelLaura Alger are being served at a cafe table on the sidewalk of Paris.

Baskets of balloons were dropped upon the happy, dancing couples to make the atmosphere seem more like gay Paris.

A group of waiters waiting to serve Cokes. Don't they look like real French waiters?

Max Slisher, Louise Mayer, Nancy Nowak, and Chuck Alger relax after the Grand March to discuss plans for the post-prom party while reminiscing over newly-made memories.
